He also has a patient with him for consultation with Dr. Unthank. The doctor is engaged in church work, being an influential member of the Baptist church.

Mrs. R. M. Frazier, 2026 Summit street, gave a dinner party Wednesday April 1, to a number of friends. The hostess was assisted by Mesdames A. E. Johnson, Robert Berry and E. M. Craig. After luncheon Miss Azalia E. Martin, one whom we all should be proud of, entertained the guests by reading two original poems. For Virtue's Sake, Phantoms, and When all is Done. Each was well received.

The Pilgrim Baptist church met in a called meeting with the Rev. Calhoun as moderator on the 14th, and extended a unanimous call to the Rev. C. H. Caldwell. The Rev. Caldwell is a Southern gentleman and a Christian, and is competent to pastor any people that are fortunate in getting him. May God bless him and help us care for him.

The Juvenile Fancy Drill and Musical entertainment at Allen Chapel last Monday was a treat. The numbers were well rendered and the drill by the 40 children was almost perfect. The time and precision was appreciated by all who were there.

Miss Cora Yancy, one of our best teachers, who instructed these boys and girls, deserves much credit for her patience and ability as a teacher. When Miss Yancy and Prof. Bailey gave this drill in the High School auditorium, before probably 600 teachers. It was the consensus of opinion of those present that it was the best that they had ever seen.

Bishop Isaac Lane, L. L. D., of Jackson, Tenn., the presiding elder over the Third Episcopal district of the Colored Methodist church in America, was in our city last Wednesday, and preached at Berry Chapel C. M. E. Church, 2039 Summit street, Wednesday evening. Several ministers assembled at the home of Rev. J. W. Jacobs, the pastor of the C. M. E. church in this city, to meet and to dine with the Bishop. The Bishop preached a good sermon Wednesday and demonstrated that he was the same deep, practical theologian. He is 69 years old, and one among the oldest bishops in service in the United States.

He is the founder of Lane College, which is located at Jackson, Tenn., and is the central school of the connection. He preached at St. Peters Chapel C. M. E. church in Kansas City Kan., Thursday night and left for Topeka, Kan., Friday morning.

Doctor William Clifford Combs, a Kentuckian by birth, but one of our boys by residence, and one of the Lincoln High School graduates, is just now being given an unusual degree of prominence and a just appreciation of his genius and executive ability as a manufacturing chemist by the motioned men of our city. Dr. Combs is the discoverer of several new compounds beneficial to suffering humanity. The handling of these new discoveries is done by a company incorporated by the last state legislature, at a capitalization of a half-million dollars. The doctor not only was given large blocks of shares in exchange for his knowledge which made the company possible, but is now considering an offer from the directors of a position as chemist on a larger salary than he has ever known a colored man to receive for drug work.

The Holly Home has been newly papered and painted inside and out. The excellent taste which Dr. and Mrs. Holly used in so doing, make it a very beautiful home.

Have you seen Dr. Unthank and his new buggy?

Mrs. Reynold Gordon and Mrs. John Hill, of Kansas City, Kans., spent the day with Mrs. Wm. Fairfax Friday.

Mrs. Nero and Miss Victoria Overall are rehearsing a large chorus daily for an opera to be given in May. Look out for the date. It promises to be the grandest of the season. Benefit for St. Augustine Mission.

Mrs. Linnie Holloway, who is serving meals in the car at Independence and Oak, will be at 558 Oak street after next week, where she will serve meals all at hours. The best service guaranteed.

Here is the biggest thing for farmers and people who live in small towns, that has been brought to public notice yet. This is American ginseng. Any one, woman or man, can grow it, in their back yards with great profit. A rod square of good ground will bring you an income of $600 a year after it is started. If you are not interested you had better get interested and send a one cent stamp to H. E. Roush, 1425 Spruce Avenue, Kansas City, Mo., for catalogue and full particulars.

The big store of Emery, Bird, Thayer Dry Goods Co. is sometimes termed the Western Emporium of Merchandise. The management of the company is regarded as being the best obtainable.

Helic of Roman Period.
A stone coffin, containing the remains of a man and woman, was discovered while plowing a field at Templethorpe Farm, Temple Newsam, near Leeds, England, recently. The remains, which are in a wonderful state of preservation, are thought to date from the Roman period. Near the spot where the coffin was found the foundations of a building, said to be that of a temple, were brought to light.

Needed Advice.
Some of these papers that run every Sunday articles headed "What to Eat" would make a greater hit with a whole lot of us if they would run a series of articles headed "How to Get It." Lord heavens! we all know what to eat, as most of us usually eat whatever we can get, but the question of how to get it is the burning theme of the hour.—Canton Saturday Roller.

Real Vindication.
The American dentist expelled from Saxony cannot want for a compensating joy when he considers the certificate of character publicly given by his wife. "My husband is a perfect man; he has absolutely no vices." Many men believe themselves deserving of such a testimonial, but how few, alas! have got their deserts.

Prices for Wild Beasts.
Hamburg has a sort of animal university at which beasts from all parts of the world are trained and acclimated for the zoological gardens of Europe. The most expensive animal is the hippopotamus, a good specimen of which costs $4,500. The price of a rhinoceros is $2,500, and a trained elephant from India costs about the same. Lions are $1,500 a pair, Bengal tigers $1,000 apiece. A giraffe costs $1,200, a camel $150.

Missouri's Greatest Pride.
It is believed that the largest mule in the world is owned in Callaway county, Missouri. The animal is the property of "Mike" Murray of Hersford, and it stands eighteen hands high and weighs 1,841 pounds. The mule is barely three years of age, and its owner expects to have the phenomenon weigh upward of 2,000 pounds by the end of the year.

Characteristic Enterprise.
With the usual speed of their old town, sundry Philadelphians who were swindled by Whittaker Wright a generation ago when he was running a get-rich-quick establishment in that city have begun an action against him now that he has been nabbed in New York for extradition to Great Britain, where he operates his scheme on a bigger scale.

And Hoopskirts.
Everything old-fashioned seems to come back in time, except keeping the Sabbath holy and wearing cork-screw curls.—Atchison Globe.

The First Union Flag.
The first Union flag was unfurled on January 1, 1776, over the camp at Cambridge.

Surprise for the Parson.
A clergyman having occasion to go to London before Christmas, his wife asked him to buy a text for the gallery of the church for the Christmas decorations, according to "The King." He was very busy and forgot all about it till just before leaving, so wired for instructions to his wife as to words and dimensions. She wired back the following message: "Unto us a son is born, nine feet long by three feet high."

Pope's Faith in Professor.
Leo XIII. has great faith in Prof. Mazzoni, who has in his home a portrait of the pope, with this inscription: "Præclaro viro, Gaetano Mazzoni, Medico, Chirurgo, arte eximia, manu strenua, præclare de Nobis merito, Leo XIII." The professor, it will be remembered, declared not long ago that the pope would easily reach his 100th year and more.

Valuable Insect Collection.
A collection of 50,000 insects has just been purchased by the department of zoology of the University of Chicago. The collection is from all parts of the world, and was made by the late John Akhurst. The collection is unusually valuable on account of its completeness, and represents a large amount of careful work, extending over many years.

The Growth of America.
In the '70s England produced three times as much iron and steel as the United States. Later on Germany contested British supremacy and passed her record of production. In 1902 the United States produced more iron than England and Germany combined, with enough left over to equal about the product of France.

Made Maize Popular.
Mrs. Charles J. Murphy, who died in Brussels, Belgium, a few days ago, was long identified with the movement to popularize the use of American maize in Europe. Her maiden name was Catherine Tone and she was a lineal descendant of Theobald Wolfe Tone, the Irish patriot.

Charcoal Eph's Daily Thought.
"Wenevah ya' sees er man dodgin' saucers an' er woman runnin' 'im er brick," said Charcoal Eph, passing his plate for another piece of ham, "yo' kin mo' gin'ally conclude dat dey am some incompatibility ob tempah in de fambly, Mistah Jackson."—Baltimore News.

Industry for the Blind.
In the school for the blind at Lisbon there has been established a new kind of industry which will prove most remunerative to the inmates. It consists in unraveling, or "picking," vegetable fibers used as stuffing material for furniture, beds, etc.

Fad of Santos Dumont.
Santos Dumont, the aeronaut, seems determined to be "up in the air" at all times. The furniture in his house is built to exaggerated heights, and when he sits in his favorite chair he is elevated about ten feet from the floor.

Tremont Temple Wants Pastor.
The Tremont Temple church, Boston, recently extended a call to the Rev. Clarence A. Barbour, D. D., of Rochester, N. Y., to its vacant pastorate. It was so nearly unanimous as to be practically so.

To Celebrate Anniversary.
The Rev. Albert Stroebel, the American missionary to St. Andrew's Island, off the coast of Nicaragua, has arrived in this country to observe the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination as a priest.
